

Carolina Asia Center

knowledge. innovation. leadership.

presents a screening of documentary film

HIDDEN LEGACY

Japanese Traditional
Performing Arts in the World
War II Internment Camps

Dir. Shirley Kazuyo Muramoto-Wong

regional premiere!

Thursday, September 24

7:30pm

FedEx Global Center, UNC Campus
Mandela Auditorium

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
NO TICKET REQUIRED

“Hidden Legacy fills an enormous vacuum in our understanding of cultural practices among Japanese American “internees” during World War II. Prior to the release of the film, virtually nothing written or recorded had examined and chronicled the ways that the traditional Japanese performing arts were maintained — and indeed thrived — in the midst of incarceration. [...] Recreation is indeed political. Drawing upon the voices of performing artists, Hidden Legacy underscores the resilience, creativity, and passion of an incarcerated people.”

-Michael Omi, American Sociologist and Ethnic Studies Professor at UC Berkeley

<http://jcalegacy.com/>

<https://www.facebook.com/jcalegacy>

<http://carolinaasiacenter.unc.edu/>